Mr. U. R. Lingoji Rao seconds the proposition

Mr. P. S. Anantha Rao moves an amendment to the above proposition as follows:—

That the Sakuntala Nataka Sabha be allowed the use of the Town Hall on Saptami, Ashtami and Navami as usual at Rs. 40 per day and the Chamundeswari Company for this year on Yekadasi at Rs. 40.

Mr. V. Thiruvengada Mudaliyar, seconds the amendment.

Mr. Settappa Siddappa supports it.

Five for and 6 against Mr. P. S. Anantha Rao's amendment.—The amendment is lost.

The original proposition of Mr. P. Pallonji is put to the vote 6 for, and 6 against.

Mr. Mahomed Sait objects to the President giving his casting vote on the ground that he is interested in the Shakuntala Karnataka Nataka Sabha.

The President says that he is not interested in that company and gives his casting vote against the proposition. It is lost.

Mr. P. S. Anantha Rao next moves that since both Mr. P. Pallonji's proposition and his amendment failed, the right of using the Hall on Navami and Yekadasi be sold by public auction.
